Dental Benefits Plans

Information

Dental benefits plans are constantly changing, and it is ultimately your responsibility to know your plan and to keep track of the amount of your remaining benefits. Plans and yearly benefits differ from individual to individual, even within the same company. Many dental benefits providers communicate only to you, and not to us. Benefits providers send you the amount of benefits you have used, and the benefits that you have remaining for the year.

When choosing a benefits plan, there can be many differences and plans aren't "one size fits all" anymore. There are different coverages, limits, and waiting times. Choose a plan that has the right coverage for you. Read the "fine print" but realize that many times it is impossible to fully understand the costs. Some of our patients have found that dental plans are not worth the expense and save money every year by not purchasing them.

If your employer purchased your dental plan, talk with your HR department to ensure that you fully understand your policy and your coverage. Benefits providers don't readily share all information on your coverage.

We can all hope that the dental benefits industry will change and become better for everyone, but for now, enjoy the benefits you do receive, realizing they will not fully cover your treatment. We can tell you what we charge for treatment, but we cannot guarantee to you what your benefits will cover.

Our estimates of coverage with your dental benefits are only estimates and are not a guarantee. Eligibility, policy provisions, and subjective decision-making affect coverage, and previous charges from other dental offices affect remaining benefits.

In summary your plan may not pay the full estimated benefit. You are responsible for all frequency limitations and treatment not paid for by your benefits provider.

Financial Responsibility and Consent To Treatment

Two frequently asked questions are “How much will it cost” and “How can I pay for it?” Before we begin with your treatment, we will provide for your review and approval either a verbal or written explanation of the recommended treatment and an estimate of the fees involved. Your acceptance of treatment and financial responsibility is documented prior to treatment.

The following is our office policy regarding payment for dental services rendered:

- Payment in full is expected at each visit.
- Patients with dental insurance are expected to pay their patient portion at time of treatment.
- Any charges left outstanding after 60 days will be assessed a finance charge of 2.34% per month. This is an annual percentage rate of 28%.
- If you are unable to pay for treatment in full, we have financing options that are available, upon credit approval. We do not offer monthly billing within the office, but we work with outside finance companies that upon credit approval, can give you monthly billing options.
- We take the following forms of payment: Cash, Check, Money Order, MasterCard, Visa, American Express, Discover, and Care Credit.
- In order for us to submit bills to your insurance plan, you must provide us with the name, address, subscriber identification number, group number, subscriber's date of birth, and phone number of the insurance plan prior to your treatment.
- We will assist you in submitting bills to your insurance plan, but you will remain fully responsible for any and all amounts not paid by your insurance plan within sixty (60) days of service. In the event we subsequently receive payment from your insurance plan, we reserve the right to apply any payment to existing unpaid balances.
- If we submit bills to your insurance plan, you agree to pay the full patient portion at the time of service for treatment provided. If your plan pays less than our original estimate given at the time of service, you agree to pay the unpaid portion that is determined by your plan as your actual patient portion.
- We will provide monthly statements for unpaid balances through ninety (90) days. All accounts unpaid after ninety (90) days will be deemed past due and may be sent to a collection agency. You agree to pay all finance charges and costs of collection, including reasonable attorneys' fees we reserve the right to charge for appointments missed or cancelled without 48 hour notice. We also reserve the right to have you pre-pay for an appointment if you have had a history of missed appointments.
- Unless altered by a divorce decree or child support order, NH law provides that both parents are jointly and severally responsible for treatment provided to their children. Unless you provide us with a valid court order to the contrary, we reserve the right to pursue either or both parents in the event of non-payment for services rendered to a child.
- Notwithstanding the foregoing, the undersigned parent agrees to bear primary responsibility and to serve as the contact person in connection with his/her child's or children's account.
- All insurance companies have limitations, and most do not cover 100% of the fee of service. We are considered “in-network” only with Northeast Delta Dental, but will gladly submit claims for almost all insurance companies. You agree to full responsibility for knowing your insurance benefit program and the limitations of your insurance as it applies to coverage, frequency limits, maximums, deductibles and the usual and customary allowance of fees.
- In the event that your insurance plan sends reimbursement directly to you, the office of G. A. Perry, DDS, Professional Association is not responsible for the submission of your dental claims and you must submit your claims yourself.

Patients acknowledge and consent:

- I hereby give my consent to be treated on an ongoing basis by the dentists and other clinical personnel of G. A. Perry, DDS, Professional Association. I understand that I have the right to revoke this consent in writing, at any time, except to the extent that a dentist or other clinical provider has taken action in reliance on my consent previously given. I have read and understand and I agree to the financial terms and conditions set forth above.
